Three questions

1. Why is “First Peoples” a better starting place than “empty land”?

2. Name two ways different Native nations lived, depending on place.

3. What is oral history, and why did it matter?

Three facts to remember

1. People lived in the Americas for thousands of years before Europeans arrived.
2. There was not one Native culture — there were many nations.
3. Place shaped life: coast, plains, desert, and woodland peoples lived differently.
