Three questions

1. Why were British regulars marching toward Lexington and Concord?

2. What did the two lanterns in the Old North Church mean?

3. Which rider actually reached Concord, and how?

Three facts to remember

1. On April 18, 1775, Dr. Joseph Warren sent two riders: William Dawes and Paul Revere.
2. Revere warned Lexington around midnight. Later a British patrol captured him.
3. Samuel Prescott got away from the patrol and carried the warning to Concord.
