Three questions

1. Dr. Joseph Warren sent two riders. Who were they, and which way did each one go?

2. The two lanterns in the Old North Church were a backup signal. Who were they for?

3. What happened to Revere, Dawes, and Prescott when the patrol stopped them in Lincoln?

Three facts to remember

1. On April 18, 1775, William Dawes rode out by land. Paul Revere was rowed across the river.
2. Revere's message was "The regulars are coming out." A patrol captured him in Lincoln.
3. Samuel Prescott escaped and warned Concord. The fighting began at dawn on April 19.

From the poem

*Listen, my children, and you shall hear
Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere, ...*

*One, if by land, and two, if by sea;
And I on the opposite shore will be, ...*

— Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, "Paul Revere's Ride" (1860)
