plague · trade route · miasma · quarantine

On the back, write each word in your own sentence.

Three questions

1. How did the plague travel from Central Asia to Europe, and what small animals helped carry it?

2. Who did frightened people blame for the plague, and what happened in Strasbourg in 1349?

3. Why did wages for ordinary workers go up after the Black Death?

Three facts to remember

1. In 1347, ships from the Black Sea brought the plague to Messina, on the island of Sicily.
2. In about four years, between a third and half of all the people in Europe died.
3. The word quarantine comes from the Italian word for forty, the number of days ships had to wait.
