Three questions

1. Who did Joan say her voices came from, and what mission did they give her?

2. How long after Joan reached Orléans did the English siege end?

3. Give two reasons why Joan's trial in Rouen was not fair.

Three facts to remember

1. Joan was born around 1412 in Domrémy. She never learned to read, but she learned to sign her name.
2. In 1429 the siege of Orléans ended, and Charles was crowned king at Reims.
3. Joan was burned at the stake in Rouen in 1431. In 1456 her name was cleared. In 1920 she was named a saint.
