Three questions

1. What did Joan say the saints told her to do?

2. Did Joan command the army like a general? What did she do instead?

3. What happened to Joan after she was captured in 1430?

Three facts to remember

1. Joan was a farmer's daughter from Domrémy. She was about 17 and could not write her name.
2. In 1429 the siege of Orléans was lifted, and Charles was crowned king at Reims.
3. Joan was tried and executed at Rouen in 1431. In 1456 another church court reversed the verdict.
